ST. ALBANS, VT.:

MONDAY AUGUST 10, 1868.

The Old Spirit.

Our readers, who have read the letter of Gen. Blair, and the remarks of Gen. Wade Hampton, will recognize the fact that the present leaders of the Democracy are actuated by the same spirit which caused the late rebellion—they mean to “rule or ruin.” The most influential Democratic papers take the same course, as witness the La Crosse Democrat and the World, with the majority of Southern papers. On the trial of the “rule or ruin” game in the late rebellion, which seems to be forgotten by the Democracy, a Union man, once in a while, took the conceit out of the “white supremacy” chiefs, and brought them to a proper understanding of their real situation. This was done once in 1862, as the following correspondence shows, and will be done again, we do not doubt, under the leadership of the same man. The position of affairs now and then has a similarity which is worthy of notice, though the conflict is shifted from the field of carnage to the field of politics. Here is the correspondence:

Head-Quarters, Fort Donelson, Feb. 16.
SIR:—In consideration of all the circumstances governing the present situation of affairs at this station, I propose to the commanding officer of the Federal forces the appointment of commissioners to agree upon the terms of capitulation of the forces at this post under my command. In that view, I suggest an armistice until twelve o'clock to-day.

I am, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
S. B. BUCKNER,
Brig.-Gen. C. S. A.
To Brig.-Gen. Grant, commanding U. S. forces near Fort Donelson.

Head-Quarters on the field, Fort Donelson, Feb. 16.
TO GEN. S. B. BUCKNER:
SIR:—Yours of this date, proposing an armistice and the appointment of commissioners to settle on the terms of capitulation, is just received. No terms except unconditional and immediate surrender can be accepted. I propose to move immediately on your works.

I am, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
U. S. GRANT,
Brig.-Gen. Commanding.

Head-Quarters, Dover, Tenn., Feb. 16.
BRIG.-GEN. GRANT, U. S. A.:

SIR:—The distribution of the forces under my command, incident to an unexpected change of commander, and the overwhelming force under your command, compel me, notwithstanding the brilliant success of the Confederate arms, to accept the ungenerous and unchivalrous terms you propose.

I am, sir, your servant,
S. B. BUCKNER,
Brig.-Gen. C. S. A.

From the St. Johns (P. Q.) News.

The Vermont Central Railway.

Among those railway companies noted for active enterprise, liberality, and moderate charges for travel, the Vermont Central takes high rank. It is not too much to say that the road is one of the best managed in the United States, and that more attention is paid to the comfort and safety of passengers than one always sees displayed. The through train for New York and Boston now leaves Montreal one hour later than heretofore, yet this time is made within the first 100 miles of the route. The Directors have also put on the line magnificent sleeping cars which run through to Boston without change, and vice versa. These sleeping cars are the wonder of all beholders, and our exchanges have recently devoted much space in praise of their beauty and comfort. The Daily News says:—

For the special accommodation of Montreal travel, the Vermont Central Railway Company have commenced running a new through train to New York and Boston. This train leaves Bonaventure Station at 4:30 p. m., and arrives in Boston at 8:30 the next morning, and in New York at 11:30. Superb Palace Sleeping Cars are attached to this train on the whole route, so that passengers for Boston taking the train at Montreal will not require to change cars. This new train commenced running yesterday, and henceforth sleeping cars will be attached at Montreal, and not at St. Albans, as formerly. The new sleeping cars were made at the Company's Works, St. Albans, and are fitted up in first class style. Each car has twenty-four seats, placed, lengthwise, covered with rich scarlet plush, and stuffed with curled hair. The mattresses are also filled with the same material. The curtains are of heavy scarlet, and blue red figured attached to the railing by leather straps, thus preventing any disagreeable noise or rattle. The floor is covered with Brussels' carpets; the wash rooms and closets are large and furnished with every convenience; coal-oil lamps have been displaced by sperm candles fixed in spring candlesticks, which keeps the candle to its place as it burns down, and prevents the possibilities of oil or grease falling to the floor in case of a jar. The facings of the car are of black walnut, with chestnut panels; the ceiling is covered with painted oil-cloth; the ventilation is good—in short, everything, down to the spittoons, which are silver-plated, is got up in a style combining elegance with comfort. The Company deserve credit for their successful efforts to administer to the wants and comfort of the traveling public.

There is a man in a lunatic asylum in England, who believes that the British Government wishes to build an iron foundry in his stomach.

Those Questions.

The questions asked by a correspondent with a request that Mr. Soule, the self-constituted candidate for sheriff, would answer them, still remain unanswered by that gentleman. This, if Mr. Soule cares for anything so much as the office, is very singular, and unfair towards any who support him for any other purpose than to cause a split in the Republican ranks. Mr. Soule has held the office under repeated Republican nominations, and now seeks, of course, for Republican votes. If there is the least obligation on the part of Republicans to support Mr. Soule rather than the regular nominee, it must be because Mr. Soule is a better Republican, and has done more for that party. But how is it? In the first place, after a short stay in the party, and after enjoying to the full the benefits of a good office, Mr. Soule puts his own interests in opposition to those of the party which has favored him highly, and thereby proves ungrateful for past favors, and recreant to principle; and secondly to give deeper color to this estimate of him, he evades questions, which, in case he is at all worthy of a moment's consideration by Republicans, he will answer promptly, and should have answered before. The truth seems to be that Mr. Soule cares not a farthing for the success of the party which twice elected him, and thereby he justifies the action of the convention in dropping him and taking up another man, who, all acknowledge is capable as himself.

Will Mr. Soule answer those questions?

THE WAY TO RULE US.—In the last two numbers of the London Punch have appeared letters of “Advice to Young Ladies,” written by Mrs. Punch. We copy from the number of July 25 the closing portion of a letter which must prove acceptable to our lady readers, as judicious advice, and to our male readers as information which they must be cautious that their wives do not profit too much by. After giving directions for catching a sufficient husband, the directions for ruling and governing him in the right way appropriately follow:

Having caught your hare next proceed to skin him, the old cookery book says; so having chosen your husband, next begin to break him in, my Judiana Far be it from Mrs. Punch to come before the world as a Female Rary, and yet has not Mr. Punch himself gone through a mild process of taming? For, if we unfortunate women who are so shamefully enslaved by the laws of our country had no moral weapons wherewith to defend ourselves, we should be in worse plight than the squaws of barbarous tribes. Thank the happy Fates, therefore, that you are blessed with a tongue, a fountain of tears, and an implacable memory. An ordinary domestic tyrant may be kept perfectly tractable by the cunning use of the first appliance, an extraordinary one is tamed with the second, and the most incorrigible despot going cannot stand the third. For instance, your husband is sulky, when asked to take you to Switzerland, or to buy you a new piano—but you can remember a thousand things he said once upon a time—in the Spooning season, as Courtship is vulgarly called—bearing upon foreign trips, or pianos, or anything you fancied, when you were an angel. Recall these things, omitting neither dates, nor interesting geographical atmospheric facts. Such, for instance, as “How we strayed from the others at the pie-ric, and it rained, and we stood under a tree,” &c., &c., or, “How we stayed at such or such a place in North Wales on our wedding tour, and there was a horrid cracked piano, and you said,—oh, that man should be so depraved!—you said, that I should have a Broadwood,” &c., &c.

Take heed that you use your memory discreetly, my daughter, and you will never find your husband more than you can fairly battle with. Never forget to remind him in season how often he goes to the Club, how seldom he takes you to the Opera, what he spends on his own pleasures, what he ought to spend on yours. What selfish creatures men are and what a mistake marriage is. Obey these instructions, and you will have every reason to bless your mother.

Mrs. Punch.

CLEMENCY.—General Grant has recommended the remission of the remainder of the sentences and the release from imprisonment of all persons now in confinement under sentence of military commission, organized under the reconstruction acts of Congress in the States in which said acts have ceased to be operative. This announcement is published by the opposition papers without a word of commendation. Perhaps they are disappointed by it, and lose capital.

A CHANGE.—The Washington Evening Express, a readable and ably conducted Democratic paper, has recently changed owners, and is now conducted by the Messrs. Hoover, to whom Owen Thorne & Co. have sold. It will continue to sustain the nominations of the Democracy, and to “advocate the supremacy of the white race, while insisting upon protection, freedom, and, above all, justice to all other races.” It will also vindicate the present able, fearless, and patriotic President of the United States in his efforts to bring back the Southern States into the Union with all their dignity and equality of rights unimpaired. So says the salutatory of the new proprietors. In circulation the Express leads the press in Washington.

BUTLER FOR CONGRESS.—Gen. Butler has written a letter, announcing himself a Candidate for re-election to Congress.

POLITICAL.—The Democrats of Washington County have put the following ticket in nomination: Senators Daniel Baldwin of Montpelier, E. E. French of Barre, A. W. Nelson of Woodbury; Assistant Judges, A. S. Wrisley, of Waterbury, Z. G. Pierce of Callias. State's Attorney, S. C. Shurtleff of Plainfield; Judge of Probate, Charles Sibley of East Montpelier; Sheriff, E. N. Spaulding of Roxbury; High Bailiff, Patrick Conway of Moretown.

Judge Poland has recently addressed the Bradford and St. Johnsbury Grant Clubs, the Caledonia County Republican Convention, and is expected to speak at the flag-raising at Lyndon Centre, on Friday next.

The Republicans of Caledonia County have put the following ticket in nomination: Senators, Gates B. Ballard, St. Johnsbury, Harley M. Hall, Burke; Judges, Peter Buchanan, Barre, Chas. Rogers, Jr., Wheelock; State's Attorney, Henry C. Belden, Lyndon; Judge of Probate, Asa L. French, St. Johnsbury; Sheriff, Nathan A. Pike, St. Johnsbury; High Bailiff, Wm. L. Pearl Sheffield.

Among those who will take the stump for Grant and Colfax is Senator John S. Carlisle, formerly of Western Virginia, and now of Baltimore.

The Elmira Gazette, the only Democratic paper in Chemung County, N. Y., has come out for Grant and Colfax, declaring that Horatio Seymour cannot and should not be elected President of the United States.

Hon. T. W. Green, a prominent Indianapolis Democrat, comes off for Grant and Colfax.

The Southern wing of the Democracy are getting very anxious to know what preparations the Northern Democratic leaders are making for carrying out the revolutionary programme of Frank Blair. One Southern paper asks if the work of raising regiments has yet been begun by the Seymour party; and it expresses a great dislike of the hot-blooded Southerners getting into another difficulty only to be again deserted by their Northern friends.

PERSONAL.—A. D. Hagar, Esq., of Proctorsville, who has stricken down with symptoms of apoplexy a week or two ago, has so far recovered as to be able to leave his home for Saratoga, to use the celebrated waters of that place.

The Free Press says that Senator Edmunds, in company with Aldermen Peck and Ward, and Cashier Woodhouse, left that city Friday night in the “Hebe” for a tour for a week or two, around the lake, to visit many of the islands and points, hunting and fishing.

Prof. Edward E. Salisbury and daughter, New Haven, Prof. Thacher, of Yale College, Egbert Starr, Esq., Dr. E. L. Youmann, Orange, N. J., Chas. H. Rogers and wife, Miss Corwith, New York, are among the recent arrivals at the Broad Leaf Inn, Ripton, Vt.

Meade, the artist is expected in Brattleboro this week.

The following gentlemen acted as pallbearers at the funeral of Gen. Halpine (“Miles O'Reilly”) on Saturday: Hon. John T. Hoffman, Major-Gen. David Hunter, James T. Brady, Hon. Horace Greeley, James G. Bennett, Jr., Robert E. Roosevelt, Peter B. Sweeney, Richard B. Connolly, Wm. M. Tweed, Nelson J. Waterbury, Hon. Richard O'Gorman and William C. Barrett.

Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe is writing a new novel at her summer retreat at Stockbridge.

Charles F. Dunbar, editor of the Boston Daily Advertiser sailed from New York for Europe on Saturday.

Jeremiah McCarthy, aged one hundred and two years, died at New Haven, Ct., on the 4th inst.

B. R. Jenne, of Brattleboro, late Captain of Company G, 5th Vt. Regiment, has been promoted to the rank of Brevet Major U. S. Volunteers, for gallant and meritorious service at the battle of Savage Station.

CANADIAN NEWS.—The following is from the report of the judges on crops for St. Armand East and West:

“So far as we can remember, we have never seen in the country such a uniformity of good and extensive crops, as we saw during our circuit recently completed. The uniformity was such that it was with difficulty we could make awards to the satisfaction of ourselves, and if we failed to please competitors, we are sure that they will be more amply paid by the abundant yield they may assuredly have this fall.

To which Mr. Sixby, one of the judges adds: “I have lived over seventy years in St. Armand, and I have never before seen such good crops on the ground.

EXTRAORDINARY CIRCUMSTANCE.—On Wednesday, at Portsmouth, with the thermometer at 122°, a gentleman named Rastick, a chemist at Southsea, while crossing the harbour in a waterman's ferry, had his umbrella (which he was carrying to protect himself from the heat of the sun) destroyed in an extraordinary manner. It is supposed that one of the frame wires must have been exposed, and that the sun's rays falling directly upon it, the wire became red hot, so that the silk with which the frame was covered, was soon ablaze. This is the first occurrence of the kind we ever remember to have seen recorded.—London Times.

Notice.

All Persons indebted to Smith & Foster would do well to call and settle their accounts before the 1st day of September 1868. Owing to a change that is to be made in the firm at that time, the settlement of accounts now due would save costs and trouble if paid before that date.

Respectfully,

CLOTHING, Clothing for Spring at WM. N. SMITH & CO'S.

ADDRESS TO THE NERVOUS AND DEBILITATED, whose sufferings have been protracted from hidden causes, and whose cases require prompt treatment to render existence desirable. If you are suffering or have suffered from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky, or floccy, or is itropy on settling? Or does a thick serum rise on the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspnoea? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting, or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling upon this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, mooping, tired of company, of life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody?—Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken, or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as brilliant? The bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits of melancholy? If so do not try to cure your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak, your knees weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver-complaint?

How many men, from badly cured diseases, from the effects of self-abuse and excesses, have brought about that state of weakness in those organs that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease—dyspepsia, indigestion, nervous debility, neuralgia, and almost every other form of disease which humanity is heir to, and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and have doctored for all but the right one.

Diseases of these organs require the use of a Burette. HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT OF UCHU is the great Diuretic, and is a certain cure for diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Organic Weakness, Female Complaints, General Debility, and all diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing.

If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity may ensue. Our flesh and blood are supported from these sources, and the health and happiness, and that of Posterity, depends upon prompt use of a reliable remedy.

Helmbold's Extract Burette, established upwards of 15 years, prepared by H. T. HELMBOLD, BOLD, Druggist, 591 New York, and 104 South 10th Street, Philadelphia, Pa. Price—$1.25 per bottle, or 6 bottles for $6.50, delivered to any address. Sold by all Druggists everywhere.

None are Genuine unless done up in steel-engraved wrapper, with fac-simile of my Chemical Warehouse, and signed
H. T. HELMBOLD.
